

We have been receiving numerous junk faxes at our own expense. Yesterday a junk fax came while there was photo paper in the printer tray. Is something being done to protect us against these junk faxes?